Father's Day

Leader: Let us praise those fathers who have sought to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

People: Let us praise those fathers who, without a good model for a father, have worked to become a good father.

Leader: Let us praise those fathers who, despite divorce, have remained in their children's lives.

People: Let us praise those fathers who have adopted children, and whose love and support have offered new life.

Leader: Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and always strive for their stepchildren's love and respect.

People: Let us pray for those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Leader: Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

People: Let us praise those men who have fathered us in their role as mentors and guides.

Leader: Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers, and pray that they may they openly delight in their children.

People: And let us praise fathers who have died, but always live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

All: Amen.
